

THE SEVEN WORDS

Nos. 1, 4, 7

D. BUSAROW

"Da Jesus an des Kreuzes stamm"

1. Fath - er, for - give these men, for, lo, They tru - ly
 4. The fourth, "My God, My God, O why for - sake me?
 7. The Last, as woe and suff' - rings end, "O God, My know not what they do." So far His love ex - tend - ed.

 Hark, the awe - full cry! Lord, thou wast here for - sake - en Fath - er, I com - mend in - to Thy hands My spir - it."

For - give us, Lord, for we too have Through ig - nor - ance of - fend - ed.
 that we might be re - ceived on high; Let this hope not be shak - en.
 Be this, dear Lord, my dy - ing wish; O heav'n - ly Fath - er, hear it.

THE SEVEN WORDS

Nos. 2 + 6

D. Busarow

"Da Jesus an des Kreuzes stamm"

2. Now to the con-trite thief He cries: "Thou, ver-i-ly, in
 6. the sixth, when vic-to-ry was won: "'Tis fin-ished" for Thy Par-a-dise shalt meet Me ere to-mor-row." Lord, take us to thy work was done, Grant, Lord, that on-ward press-ing, We may the work Thou king-dom soon Who lin-ger here in sor-row.

 dost im-pose Ful-fill with Thine own bless-ing.

THE SEVEN WORDS

Nos. 3 + 5

D. Busarow

3. To weep-ing Ma-ry stand-ing by, "Be-hold thy son," now
 5. The Sav-ior's fifth word was "I thirst." O might-y Prince of

3. To weep-ing Ma-ry stand-ing by, "Be-hold thy
 5. The Sav-ior's fifth word was "I thirst." O might-y hear Him cry, To John, "Be-hold thy moth-er." Pro-Life, thy thirst For us and our sal-va-tion Is son," now hear Him cry, To John, "Be-hold thy moth-er."

 Prince of Life, thy thirst For us and our sal-va-tion

vide, O Lord, for those we leave; Let each be-friend the oth-er.
 tru-ly great, do help us then, That we es-cape dam-na-tion.

Pro-vide, O Lord, for those we leave; Let each be-friend the oth-er.
 Is tru-ly great, do help us then, that we es-cape dam-na-tion.