

Concordia University Chicago
Soccer
Lady Cougars

vs. Augustana College
Saturday, August 30th, 2008
Concordia Stadium

Senior midfielder Molly Muther (20) battles the Augustana player for control of the ball. Muther, a three-year player for the Cougars, started 16 of 17 matches in 2008.

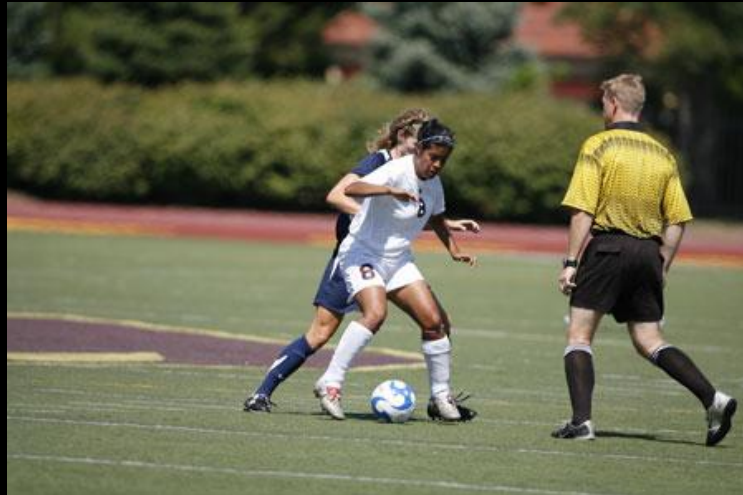

Sophomore midfielder Kristin Zielke (11) controls the ball.

Junior transfer Amber Trink (15) pressures the Augustana players.

Angie Hartman (13), junior from New Haven, IN plays the ball early in the match.

Ruth Bedell (8), a three year starter from Iowa City, IA shields the ball as she faces strong pressure from Augustana.

Senior Allison Spring (14), a tough tackling defender attacks the ball.

Ruth Bedell (8), accelerates away from the Augustana player.

Freshmen midfielder Kyla Stigdon (16), from Mount Airy, Maryland.

Junior Jenny Haney (2).

Junior forward Danielle Schoenheider (22) looks to get behind the Augustana defense.

Senior defender Allison Spring (14).

Jenny Haney (2), a junior defender from DeWitt, IA.

Allison Spring (14), a senior defender from Jackson, MI shields the ball from the Augustana player. Spring started every match for the Cougars the past two seasons.

Senior defender Molly Muther (20).

Junior Ruth Bedell (8).

Junior transfer Roxy Kavanaugh (4). Kavanaugh started every match for the Cougars this season. Kavanaugh, also started several games in goal in 2008.

Senior midfielder Kari Zeilke (12). Zeilke finished her career with the Cougars as the all-time leading scorer.

Kari Zielke (12) was named Northern Athletics Conference Honorable Mention. Zielke lead the cougars in scoring for the 2008 season.

Senior Molly Muther (20) looks upfield.

Junior Amber Trink (15) plays the ball upfield.

Junior defender Roxy Kavanaugh (4).

Junior Jenny Haney (2) tracks the ball.

Kyla Farquar (6), arguably one of the fastest Cougars, makes a play on the ball.

Senior Molly Muther (20) tackles the ball from Augustana.

Ruth Bedell (8) quickly moves the ball away from pressure.

Allison Spring (14) plays the ball upfield.

Kari Zielke (12) looks to bend the free kick around the wall. Zielke lead the Cougars with 7 goals on the season.